

Counseling and Education Center – Wynne Bouley

The Counseling and Education Center on Grand Junction provides professional affordable counseling services to individuals and families. They are committed to their Core Values of: Affordability - by ensuring that counseling is available to all regardless of income levels. Dedication - by committing to provide counseling services to all who are in need. Meeting Emotional Needs - by providing affordable professional counseling in a supporting and a caring environment. Community - by maintaining an environment of respect and hospitality for all.

Wynne Bouley has worked in a variety of positions over the years: employment counselor, sales person, teacher for at-risk students, school counselor, program coordinator, consultant for Colorado Department of Higher Education & AmeriCorps volunteer. Wynne presently does contractual work for two non-profits and is a substitute teacher. She loves to travel, hike, dance, read and volunteer (United Way allocations committee, Relay for Life, Roice-Hurst, Foundation for Cultural Exchange, Partners).

The Spokesman's Spokesman

By Reed (So Charming) Mitchell

With just a fortnight of his presidency left to annoy and astound our auspicious gaggle, our cool President Joe rang the bell soundly and then; "wonder of wonders" the Dos Rios "Monkey Ward discount Microphone System" worked perfectly! Ya' shoulda offered them a bribe earlier in the year President Joe, your voice actually resounded throughout the hay barn room and the faithful hung on every word. Erle (winning number) Reid prayed for us and Chris (not cupcake) Unfug led the singing of Home on the Range in honor of Bird City using some oddly spastic arm waving; the palsy is setting in already and he hasn't even started his term. Our King David was conspicuously absent; perhaps it's all the love and support he gets from the Rotary press that caused him to take a week off from his song leading.

Herb (Bird City) Bacon brought some family to the stage and his daughter, Linda Reed immediately disavowed having any knowledge of Herb's favorite locale, Bird City. Jane Campbell one of Mr. Bacon's more vocally challenged lady friends and our Club's first Rotary Exchange Student spoke at length about what sounded like a guided tour of Nebraska. Dale Beede adamantly objected to her remarks and declared: "I'll offer any sum of money to not have to hear this again". A new member at this reporter's table said: "Nebraska is just a wasteland isn't it?" to which we retorted "but what about all the corn?" Nebraska is a curious place to be from or attend college at, for sure... and the corn is so important there...I believe they call it "Big Yellow"

On the Beat: This reporter attended the final Club Board meeting of President Joe Warner's reign Wednesday evening at Bookcliff Country Club and was pleasantly surprised to see most all the old board members and new inductees in attendance. Soon to be inducted President (not) Cupcake outlined several of his agendas and tricked some newbies onto his committees. This reporter gave "the cake" our vow to do another year of the crack reporting that you all love, and we're sure looking forward to that big pay raise and new company car he promised. We are seeking a "Cub" reporter to groom for the odd emergencies that arise, a Jimmy Olson to our Clark Kent. The foreign correspondent from last year may be available but his nurse has a tighter grip on him these days.

Item: As of June 11th the New Palisade Rotary Club has a Rotary Charter, watch' em go.

Happy Bucks

- Bob Johnson had $2 biggies for Dale Beede's effort to acquire a district simplified grant for Partners
- Steve Martin had $2 bucks for being back and also for a snowmobile guy named Royal who just passed
- John Gormley gave $10 bucks for his new Granddaughter... congratz John...
- Lynn Lickers celebrated the paper being delivered late with $2 Bucks, she says they got plenty of calls??
- Jeanie lauded Walt's concert and said she went home and kicked her piano afterward, a sad mental picture.
- Tommy Hunn reported everyone's pal Gene O Taylor has resigned the Club, you'll be missed Pal...
- Jane Kruse had $2 measlies for something that happened in Holdrich Nebraska. (Nebraska again?)
- Merritt Kinsey had $5 bucks for a big machine order he received. He's hiring 40 new guys... Huurraaayy..!
- Fid Braffett mentioned Ohio State and welcomed Nebraska to the Big 10 (Nebraska again??)

Warner's Corner

Our Rotary Club has, in recent times, undertaken the task of tending to some needed "housekeeping" projects. These efforts have helped us maintain our status as one of the best clubs in the district and beyond.

Any one of these projects is significant in itself, but when grouped together, the list is even more impressive. It includes:

- Completion of a Strategic Planning process which led to the writing of a Mission Statement and formulation of Goals & Objectives for the next 2-5 years
- Expansion of the Board of Directors from 6 to 7 members and revising the Club Leadership Plan to include the following areas of focus: Club Administration, Public Relations, Membership Development, Service Projects, Foundation and Community Service
- Revamping the leadership structure of our club's Foundation with the election of a new president and seating a 9-member board of director.
- Restructuring our Secretary, Treasurer and bookkeeping function - adding a Secretary (Vicki Canaday) and a Treasurer (David Brown) as new members of the board and contracting out the function of bookkeeper
- Appointing a new Finance Committee to serve in an advisory role to our board in all matters financial. The committee consists of Herb Bacon, chairman, and members Bob Johnson, Dean Massey and Bill Sisson.

In addition to these achievements, our club proudly continues its longtime commitment to such worthy undertakings as Back-to-School Supplies, the Dictionary Project, Bell-Ringing, Masquerade, etc. The undeniable truth is ... this is a great club that only gets better!

Item

The Sergeant at Arms has asked that the Rotary faithful quit adding pins and things to our name badges. The extra stuff causes problems in the storage case. So no more ginger bread on the name tags Guys...

Gifts for the President

Herb (Bird City) Bacon brought his Coolness some really good stuff from Bird City; A brochure, a cap, a tee shirt (XXL) and a Bird City Belt buckle. His Coolness was teary-eyed over Herb's gifts.

Answers to life's most perplexing questions...

I know there are people in this world who do not love their fellow man—I hate people like that!

Fun Facts By Jan Pomrenke

How fast a year flies and it has been more than Cool! Joseph A. Warner, of Joe Warner Marketing has been more than "Cool!". Reasonable fining, not too embarrassing, very considerate and oh, too kind. He has missed one fining opportunity that I for one would have paid dearly. My Rotary pin that was on my name badge got lost somehow and I got out of the habit of putting on another pin. It is the absence of pin fining that could raise more money. By the time this hits print maybe I will remember to put another pin on. That is about my only observation for him to have done better -- who would have thought? Now, up comes the next who? - Cupcake? What is that all about? More calories ... Too sweet ... go figure! I will have to think on that one. I kinda liked Unfugness ... His Highness Unfugness ... just getting the feel here. We will see. Thanks for a great year Mr. Joe Cool. I am getting my recycled boot ready to Give You The Boot! So get ready and beware.
